

HENRIKE HOEREN

Host of German Delegation, Netherlands

My name is Henrike, I am 30 years old from Germany. In my daily life I work as supervisor in an elderly care home.

Eurovision has been part of my life for a long time. Watching it for the first time with my parents around 2008, I instantly loved the crazy costumes, beautiful artists and the joyous weirdness of it. Having watched it every year since then, I took a leap of faith in 2015 and quit my job to work a month as a volunteer Teamleader at the Eurovision Village for the Eurovision in Vienna. Not everyone understood my decision at that time, but it turned out to be brilliant - sleepless nights, countless new Eurovision friends and overall new insights. 2018 was the next time I worked for the Eurovision as a volunteer in the commentators booth - bringing coffee, printing countless papers for hardworking commentators from all over the globe. 2020 was supposed to be my next chance, working as a personal delegation host for the German team in Rotterdam - a chance that will hopefully only be postponed. Having worked at the Eurovision as a fan has giving me huge appreciation about all the work and organisation behind the scenes to make this mega event looking effortless .

My greatest dream regarding Eurovision is to one day read the points for the German public - so far no luck, but without dreams life would be boring.
