Felix Häring

LMU Munich

The annual tradition of watching the Eurovision Song Contest with his family has made him a big fan of the Eurovision Song Contest, of course, and also academically interested in languages, history, and politics. Felix is currently pursuing his Master's degree in Eastern European Studies at LMU Munich with a particular interest in political dynamics within the Visegrád countries and the post-Yugoslav space, Czech-German relations and the national self-representation of Slavic countries in popular culture.

Felix became aware of the Eurovision Conference in 2022 when he was a volunteer at the ESC in Turin. After being speaker for the Eurovisions Science Slam in 2023 he joined the Eurovisions team in as part of the organizing committee for the 2024 edition.
